

The professional development working cycle

How will this PD working cycle help you link the professional development sessions to your classroom practice?

- How will this work in practice for you as a group?
- What timescales will work for this cycle in your school or college situation?
- How much time will you need for the classroom inquiry phase?
- Will you carry out the reflection on practice informally or make a more formal record of your thoughts to share?

